Google - A Culture of Innovation and Creativity

Come join Google to hear Lars Bak - mastermind behind the Google Chrome V8 engine - speak about his exciting career path in Google, sharing the start up aspect of the company and how he has been thriving in this innovative and entrepreneurial environment!

Following this, to give you an insight into the online advertising world, and the importance and great impact it can have for a start up, we will present Google AdWords with a short introduction and show how easy it is to create your own online marketing campaign.

We are excited to meet you and look forward to spend an afternoon with you!
